

UNIVERSITÀ
DEGLI STUDI
DI BERGAMO

Dipartimento
di Scienze Umane
e Sociali

The VET system in Italy and Lombardy

History, pedagogical paradigms and interdisciplinary perspectives

Thursday 19th May

University of Bergamo, Department of Human and Social Sciences
[Aula 2, Bernareggi]

9.30-11.30

Institutional greetings

Marco Lazzari, Head of the Department of Human and Social Sciences, University of Bergamo

Opening and presentation of the DAAD project

Dietmar Frommberger, University of Osnabrück; Francesco Magni, University of Bergamo

1st round table

Chair: Andrea Potestio, University of Bergamo

Evelina Scaglia, University of Bergamo

Historical perspectives about VET system at national and local level

Giada Ragone, University of Milan

Lombardy as a laboratory of innovation on VET. A constitutional perspective

Claudio Melacarne, University of Siena

Situated educational ecosystems and new training models

Francesco Magni, University of Bergamo

Non-academic tertiary education in Italy and Lombardy: paradigms and perspectives

11.30-12.00 Discussion

12.00 - Lunch

14.00 - 16.30

2nd round table

Chair: Francesco Magni, University of Bergamo

Francesca Torlone, University of Siena

Embedded learning in the workplaces. Research experiences within organisations

Andrea Cegolon, University of Macerata

Vocational education and training in the perspective of lifelong learning

Andrea Potestio, Paolo Bertuletti, University of Bergamo

Apprenticeship as an educational method for higher education

Luca Oliva, Liberal Studies Program Director, University of Houston (USA)

A different perspective: reflections on the USA

16.30-17.00 Discussion & Conclusion

18th-20th May 2022 - University of Bergamo
1st Seminar of the DAAD project - "Regional Perspectives on VET: Lombardy and Lower Saxony in comparison"

Scientific committee: Francesco Magni, Andrea Potestio
Organizing committee: Paolo Bertuletti, Alice Locatelli, Virginia Capriotti, Arianna Taravella